Terry Pegula

Owner, CEO, and President

Terry Pegula is a self-made success story, rising from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry and one of very few professional sports owners to operate franchises in multiple sports.

On Feb. 22, 2011, Terry and Kim Pegula, who had previously been season ticket holders, realized their dream of owning a hockey franchise by purchasing the NHL's Buffalo Sabres. They followed up their commitment to hockey by purchasing the AHL's Rochester Americans later that year, restoring a longtime affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks.

Together with Kim, Terry added another franchise to their Buffalo holdings on Oct. 8, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Pro Football Hall of Famer Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. and become the second owners in the storied history of the Buffalo Bills.

Terry serves as Owner, CEO, and President of the Bills and currently sits on the following NFL committees: the Health and Safety Committee, the Fan Engagement & Major Events Committee, and the DEI Committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions toward diversity in the NFL. In addition to the Sabres and Bills, Terry and Kim's ownership also extends to the NLL's Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks.

Raised in Carbondale, Pennsylvania, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University as a math major and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, Texas. He later joined Felmont Oil Co. as an Area Engineer, a decision that brought him to Olean, New York in 1975.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years, Terry built East Resources, Inc. into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources, Inc.. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy, LLC. JKLM Energy is staffed with many former East Resources, Inc. employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top-producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources' assets, Terry focused his attention on his love of sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena on the campus of The Pennsylvania State University, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State and helping to form the Big Ten Hockey Conference.

The Pegulas began construction of a multipurpose ice complex and opened LECOM Harborcenter in 2014. The more than $200 million dollar, personally financed complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two NHL-size hockey rinks, training facilities, three restaurants, a full-service Marriott Hotel and parking. The combination of KeyBank Center and LECOM Harborcenter have allowed Buffalo to be a center for hockey, hosting the 2016 NHL Draft, NHL Combine, 2018 IIHF World Junior Championships and the 2019 Men's NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition to overseeing the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh and his family business operations in Boca Raton, Florida. Terry and Kim have five children between them: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Jessica competes on the Women's Tennis Association Tour, currently ranking top 5, and she was a member of the 2021 and 2024 US Olympic Teams

Kim Pegula

Owner

Kim Pegula is the owner of both the Buffalo Sabres and Buffalo Bills. Kim made history in 2018, when she became the first female president of both an NHL and NFL team.

Kim and her husband Terry purchased the Sabres on Feb. 22, 2011 and the AHL's Rochester Americans later that year, restoring a longtime affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks. On Oct. 8, 2014, Kim and Terry realized a long-time dream when they became only the second owners of the Bills. The Pegulas' sports ownership also extends to the Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks of the NLL.

Kim has previously served as the co-chair of the NHL's Executive Inclusion Committee and on the board of directors for the Hockey Hall of Fame. She has also served on the NFL's Workplace Diversity Committee, committing to ensuring that diversity is a priority in both leagues. Kim's NFL involvement extended to the league's Super Bowl and Major Events Advisory Committee, Business Ventures Committee, and NFL Foundation Committee.

In 2014, Kim and Terry opened LECOM Harborcenter, a more than $200 million multipurpose facility anchored by two NHL-size ice rinks and a Marriott Hotel franchise. Combined with KeyBank Center, the facility helped attract several major events to Buffalo since its inception, including the NHL Scouting Combine, 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 IIHF World Junior Championships and 2019 NCAA Men's Frozen Four, as well as a variety of stadium and arena concerts.

For their efforts, Kim and Terry have been previously recognized with the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL and their involvement in the Buffalo community landed the Pegulas on the Buffalo Business First Most Influential People list.

In addition to their experience in professional sports, Kim and Terry have been committed to the growth of sports at the collegiate level. In 2010, they donated $102 million for the creation of the Pegula Ice Arena at Penn State University. The facility allowed Penn State to create an NCAA Division I hockey program. Kim also supported Houghton College with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex, allowing Houghton's athletic department to become a Division III program.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York and Kim served on Governor Andrew Cuomo's Reopening Advisory Board for New York State.

Born in Seoul, South Korea on June 7, 1969, Kim was adopted at the age of 5 by Ralph and Marilyn Kerr and moved to Fairport, New York, a suburb of Rochester. She attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources, Inc. in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

Terry and Kim have five children between them: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Jessica competes on the Women's Tennis Association Tour, currently ranking top 5, and she was a member of the 2021 and 2024 US Olympic Teams.

Stanley Cup Playoff Format

The NHL underwent a divisional realignment prior to the 2013-14 season that affected the league's playoff format. The format is as follows:

Playoff qualification will be primarily Division-based, with the top three finishers in each Division qualifying for the first 12 spots in the Stanley Cup Playoffs (and the first three "seeds" in each Division).

The two additional playoff spots in each Conference, designated as "Wild Cards," will be awarded to the next two highest-placed finishers in each Conference, ranked on the basis of regular-season points and regardless of Division.

"Seeding" of the Wild Card teams within each Divisional Playoff will be determined on the basis of regular-season points. The first-place finisher with the most regular-season points in the Conference will be matched against the Wild Card team with the fewest regular-season points, and the first-place finisher with the second-most regular-season points in the Conference matched against the Wild Card team with the second-fewest regular-season points.

The Playoffs proceeded as follows:

- #1 vs. #4 / #2 vs. #3 – Winners play each other for berth in Conference Championship
- Conference Finals – Two advancing teams in the West and two advancing teams in the East meet in Conference Championship
- Eastern and Western Conference Champions meet in Stanley Cup Final

Buffalo Sabres Retired Numbers

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only seven numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on Oct. 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Martin (#7) and Robert (#14) joined Perreault in a ceremony to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on Nov. 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on Jan. 5, 1996. The Sabres retired two more numbers during the 2005-06 season. Right winger Danny Gare (#18) was honored on Nov. 22, 2005, while Pat LaFontaine's #16 was hoisted to the rafters on March 3, 2006. On Jan. 13, 2015, Dominik Hasek became the seventh player – and first goaltender – to have his number retired by the team. Ryan Miller became the second goaltender in franchise history to have his number raised to the rafters on Jan. 19, 2023.

In addition to the retired numbers, the Sabres also have three additional banners hanging for important figures in the franchise's history. When the team moved to its current arena in 1996, the Sabres unveiled a banner honoring Seymour H. Knox III, who was one of the three founders of the franchise. Seymour's brother and fellow founder, Northrup, had his banner raised shortly thereafter in 1998. The Knox brothers were the principal owners of the franchise from the team's inception until their deaths. On April 1, 2022, Buffalo honored another legend by raising a banner for longtime play-by-play announcer Rick Jeanneret to the rafters. Jeanneret called games for the Sabres for more than 50 years, from the team's second season in 1971-72 until his retirement following the 2021-22 season.

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first ever draft choice and set the standard by which all future Sabres would be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star Games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number 11 in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, there will never be another.

Buffalo Sabres fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular-season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number 7's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Final appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals – one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season. Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't wearing a Sabres uniform. On Jan. 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the league's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds the Sabres' records for most goals (44) and points (74) by a rookie and his 21 career hat tricks are a franchise-high. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories. Martin passed away on March 13, 2011, and his life was celebrated in a public memorial service at HSBC Arena on March 24. The team honored his memory by painting the number seven on the ice behind each goal for the remainder of the regular season and playoffs.

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of game three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Final. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started with the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season. That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number 7 in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star Games.

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the intra-league draft in June 1972 from Pittsburgh. Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, NY Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates. Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular-season games plus 126 more in the postseason. Included in his playing days were eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star Games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

Danny Gare played his first game for the Sabres on Oct. 10, 1974 against Boston and scored just 18 seconds into his first NHL shift. He finished his rookie season with 62 points (31+31) and contributed 13 points (7+6) in the Sabres' run to the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. Gare followed up his strong rookie campaign with his first of two 50-goal seasons in 1975-76, when he netted 50 goals and 23 assists in 79 games and chipped in two game-winning goals in the playoffs. That season, Gare recorded three of his 10 career hat tricks as a Sabre. In 1979-80, he scored a career-high 56 goals, including a club-record 11 game-winners. Rick Martin is the only other Sabre to have two 50-goal seasons. With 267 goals as a Sabre, Gare holds the record for goals by a Sabres right wing. He finished his Sabres career with 500 points. Gare's career as a Sabre came to an end on Dec. 2, 1981 when he was traded to the Detroit Red Wings. He spent his final NHL season in Edmonton in 1986-87. The Nelson, British Columbia. native finished his career with 685 points (354+331) and was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 1994.

Pat LaFontaine enjoyed an illustrious 15-year career before retiring from the NHL in 1998 as the second-highest scoring American-born player with 468 goals and 1,013 points. He was born in St. Louis, but grew up in the suburbs of Detroit, and is still considered one of the game's best playmakers, fastest skaters, and most humble superstars. A member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto, LaFontaine began his career in 1983-84 with the New York Islanders. He had a career year for Buffalo in 1992-93 when he set Sabres records for points (148) and assists (95) in a season. After being sidelined by a serious knee injury for most of the 1993-94 season, he returned as team captain in 1994-95 and was awarded the Bill Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to hockey. LaFontaine was with the Sabres from 1991-1997, finishing with 385 points (158+227) in 268 games. He completed the "Empire State Hat Trick" by playing for all three NHL organizations within New York State when he was traded to the Rangers in 1997. He remained one of the Rangers' leading scorers until injuries forced him to prematurely retire on Aug. 11, 1998.

Originally acquired by the Sabres from the Chicago Blackhawks on Aug. 7, 1992, Dominik Hasek remains one of the most decorated goaltenders in team and league history, appearing in a total of 491 games for the Blue & Gold during a span of nine seasons from 1992-2001. Hasek appeared in a career-high 72 games for the club in the 1997-98 season, setting a team record with 13 shutouts, only to follow that up with a career-best 1.87 goals-against average, .937 save percentage and a Stanley Cup Final berth in 1998-99. While backstopping the Sabres, he became the first goaltender in NHL history to win the Hart Trophy twice (1997 & 1998), while also capturing six Vezina Trophies (1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 1999 & 2001) as well as the William M. Jennings Trophy (1994 & 2001) and the Lester B. Pearson Award (1997 & 1998) twice each. By the end of his time in Buffalo, Hasek held every meaningful franchise goaltending record and still owns the team's career and single-season records (all from 1998-99) for shutouts (55 career/13 single-season), save percentage (.926/.937) and goals-against average (2.22/1.87).

Drafted by Buffalo in the fifth round (138th overall) of the 1999 NHL Draft, Miller played two post-draft seasons at Michigan State University and was named the NCAA (CCHA) Goaltender of the Year in all three seasons he spent with the Spartans. After wrapping up his collegiate career, he made his NHL debut with the Sabres on Nov. 19, 2002 at New Jersey and earned his first win with Buffalo on Nov. 22 vs. Columbus. Miller spent the first three years of his professional career between Buffalo and the Rochester Americans, Buffalo's American Hockey League affiliate, and earned the Baz Bastien Memorial Award as the AHL's Best Goaltender during the NHL lockout in 2004-05. Following the NHL lockout, Miller emerged as the Sabres top goaltender in 2005-06, leading the team to the Eastern Conference Finals and posting a .908 save percentage and a 2.56 goals-against average in the playoffs. In 2006-07, Miller once again played a pivotal role in Buffalo's run to the Eastern Conference Finals, registering a .922 save percentage in the playoffs and being named to the Eastern Conference All-Star Team in the regular season. In what is widely regarded as the best season of his professional career, Miller earned the Vezina Trophy, was named to the NHL First All-Star Team, won the NHL Foundation Player Award, earned a silver medal with Team USA at the Olympic Games and was named as the Olympic Most Valuable Player in 2009-10. His 41 wins in 2009-10 are the most by a Sabres goaltender in a single season in franchise history. He is the winningest goaltender in Sabres history (284 wins) and he ranks second all-time in wins (391) by an American-born goaltender in NHL history. His 60 shootout wins are the most by any American-born goaltender in NHL history. Miller also ranks first in Sabres history in games played (540), games started (532), saves (14,847) and time on ice (31,661:01).

Ticketmaster Alumni Plaza » KeyBank Center

On Oct. 12, 2012, the Buffalo Sabres unveiled the newly named 'Alumni Plaza' outside of the team's arena, designed to honor all former members of the team. As part of the plaza's transformation, the six concrete columns that support a pedestrian walkway above the plaza were surrounded by bricks and mortar. Every player ever to play a game for the franchise is commemorated with a plaque on those bricks, detailing his first game with the Sabres.

Also unveiled that day was the centerpiece of Alumni Plaza: a cast in bronze statue depicting the French Connection. Composed of center Gilbert Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert, the French Connection is widely considered to be one of the greatest forward lines in NHL history and remains the most celebrated offensive unit in Buffalo Sabres history. The trio, all of whom were French-Canadian, was dubbed 'The French Connection' – after the 1971 film of the same name – and played together in Buffalo from the team's acquisition of Robert on March 4, 1972 until his departure on Oct. 5, 1979.

Between them, the members of The French Connection played 2,396 games for the Sabres, scoring 1,116 goals and registering 2,573 total points. During their tenure in Buffalo, the three were honored with a combined 15 NHL All-Star Game appearances and seven selections to the First and Second NHL All-Star Teams. All three are members of the Sabres Hall of Fame and have had their numbers officially retired from use by the Sabres. Perreault, the franchise's first ever draft pick, served as the team's captain for five seasons and retired after 17 NHL seasons – all with the Sabres.

Inspiration for the statue came from a photograph taken during a playoff game at Memorial Auditorium on April 27, 1975 which features all three members of The French Connection. The photograph was taken by award-winning photographer Ron Moscati. During the game in which the photograph was taken, all three members of the French Connection scored a goal to lead the Sabres to a playoff win against the Montreal Canadiens.

To design and construct the statue, the Sabres commissioned distinguished American sculptor Jerry McKenna. McKenna is well known for his sports statues, and was named the 2003 'Sports Sculptor of the Year' by the All-American Football Foundation. A specially-designed pedestal, constructed by HHL Architects of Buffalo, features an integrated lighting system and an illuminated informational panel which provides a base for the statue.

NHL All-Star Game History

The Buffalo Sabres hosted the 31st NHL All-Star Game on Jan. 24, 1978 at Buffalo Memorial Auditorium. Sabres forwards Gilbert Perreault and Rick Martin each represented the Wales Conference in the game. Martin scored a goal with 1:39 remaining in the third period to tie the game, sending the All-Star Game to overtime for the first time in its 31-year history. Perreault broke the tie at 3:55 of overtime to give the Wales Conference a 3-2 victory.

History of the Buffalo Sabres Uniform

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier. The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years.

The crest which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October 1970 until April 1996 reflected the team's name. Along with the buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier, 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jerseys. In their first season in the new uniforms, the Sabres honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

On Nov. 22, 2000, the Sabres unveiled the team's first-ever alternate jersey against the Philadelphia Flyers. The jersey paid tribute to the team's original sweater, while also incorporating colors and elements from the 1996 design. The organization chose from more than 50 different concepts and developed an homage to the original blue and gold crest -- featuring the traditional circle and crossed Sabres logo -- adorned on a red-based jersey, trimmed in the team's black and silver of the 1990s. The word "BUFFALO" appeared on the lower trim to signify the team's proud attachment to its hometown. The third jersey also featured the current Sabres white buffalo-head logo, which appeared on the shoulders. Though it didn't represent a change to their official uniform scheme, the Sabres' next alternate jersey appeared when the team donned its original blue and yellow colors with the former logo and design for the season finale, April 4, 2003, against New Jersey.

Following the tragic events in Manhattan on Sept. 11, 2001, the Sabres took on the Rangers in New York's regular-season home opener at Madison Square Garden as the nation healed. As a sign of solidarity, the Sabres wore a modified version of their black, white and red jerseys with the Rangers' diagonal "New York" script replacing the buffalo head across the front. Both teams' jerseys were auctioned off, raising $215,000 for the Twin Towers Fund.

The Sabres' next uniform scheme, unveiled on September 16, 2006, took its inspiration from the original Sabres uniform (1970-1996) and the team's second uniform (1996-2005). The team returned to a blue and gold color scheme with the franchise's original colors altered to a deeper navy blue and richer gold. Silver accents and a revised "B-Sabre" logo were carried over from the team's second uniform. Unique in the NHL, the new uniforms had player numbers on the front of the jersey. Buffalo also debuted a new alternate uniform that updated the original blue uniform from 1970 by adding the player number on the front to match the newly designed uniforms. The alternate jersey was only worn for the 2006-07 season.

For the Winter Classic game on Jan. 1, 2008, the Sabres wore a modified version of the team's original white jerseys. This was the only time the jersey was worn that season.

The Sabres introduced a new third jersey in 2008-09 that incorporated design elements from the original uniforms while linking elements from the current jerseys. The team's original road uniform (1970-1996) was updated to incorporate the team's darker navy blue and rich gold colors, along with silver accents on the stripes to give dimension to the original design. The player numbers appeared on the front of the uniform and a neck tie was incorporated as a nod to the team's original uniform. The original crossed Sabres logo also featured silver accents to give a beveled look to the team's original logo. The jersey was designed to incorporate the design elements of the Reebok EDGE uniform system.

During the 2010-11 season, the Sabres adopted a uniform at home and on the road that recalled elements of the first uniform in franchise history. At home, the Sabres utilized the team's previous third jersey. On the road, they donned a white jersey that incorporates the same accent elements of the updated home jersey. The team also unveiled an all-new 40th anniversary uniform. This classically designed uniform was a tribute to not only the history of Buffalo hockey, but also to early NHL jersey designs of the past. The 40th anniversary alternate jersey was worn 12 times at HSBC Arena during the 2010-11 season and continued to serve as the team's alternate jersey in 2011-12.

The Sabres unveiled another new alternate jersey prior to the 2013-14 season that the team would wear for two seasons. Challenged by Sabres ownership to use gold as the primary jersey color for the first time in team history, the Sabres' creative team – in collaboration with Reebok – created a two-tone jersey with gold as the primary color on the front and navy blue on the back. A newly designed Buffalo Sabres wordmark appeared on the players' pant leg as well as just below the neckline on the main jersey, right above the Sabres' traditional crest on the front of the jersey. Additionally, a unique font and number art were designed by Reebok and were inspired by the tips of actual sabers. The all-new font was used for the jersey numbers as well as players' names. Captain and alternate captain insignia incorporated crossed sabers as design elements and the patches were moved from the traditional spot on the chest to the shoulder of the jersey.

The team saw minor changes to both its home and road jerseys when the NHL partnered with Adidas before the 2017-18 season to unveil new authentic jerseys for all 31 NHL teams utilizing the company's ADIZERO technology and design elements. While each Sabres jersey retained its general appearance, the most significant changes were the removal of the silver piping and gray accents on the sides of the jerseys.

The Sabres appeared in their second Winter Classic on Jan. 1, 2018, the 10-year anniversary of the inaugural game in Buffalo. To commemorate the occasion, the team wore a white jersey that combined design concepts from the franchise's early years with modifications of the team's current logo and elements from the team's 40th anniversary jersey. In addition to minor illustration adjustments to the logo's buffalo and swords, the initials "NY" were added as a marker of the intrastate matchup. The crest and the numbers on the official game jerseys were executed in felt and faux leather materials as a nod to historical "hockey sweater" material construction.

In addition to the crest, the uniform featured three secondary marks: a newly designed shoulder patch that abstracted the buffalo from the crest and filled it with the team's name; a pair of crossed swords on the pants, also abstracted from the crest; and the Buffalo script wordmark from team's 40th anniversary jersey, now located on the helmet. Following the Winter Classic, the team wore a Winter Classic-style jersey with minor modifications to the one worn at the outdoor game as an alternate jersey for three home games in 2018.

In August 2019, the team unveiled a new alternate jersey to be worn for the team's "Golden Season" 50th anniversary celebration in 2019-20. The jersey was made up of a white base adorned with the iconic Sabres crest in fluorescent gold and navy blue. In homage to the team's history, the jersey included five stripes representing each of the franchise's decades on both sleeves and the jersey's bottom, as well as an inner neckline featuring logos from throughout the team's history.

The Golden Season alternate jersey was only part of the team's 2019 nod toward the past – the Sabres also announced that the 2019-20 season would be the final time the team would wear their navy uniforms, as the team would return to royal blue as its primary color in 2020-21. Unveiled in August 2020, the team's current royal blue, gold, and white uniform marks a return to the franchise's original look with only minor changes made to the classic jerseys; most notably, the striping on the blue jersey has been altered to introduce white piping on top of the original gold stripes. The crest has also been slightly simplified from the original, with silver accents removed to create a sleek modern appeal. Details first seen in the 50th season jersey crest have been carried over to this uniform system, most notably the stitching pattern on the buffalo.

The 2020-21 season featured yet another homage to the team's history: As part of the NHL's Reverse Retro campaign, the Sabres unveiled an alternate jersey in November 2020 modeled after the team's first-ever alternate sweater. The updated design recolored the original alternate, worn from 2000-01 through 2005-06, to match the team's current royal blue and gold color scheme.

When the Sabres took the ice for their third-ever outdoor game at the 2022 Heritage Classic, the team wore a jersey designed to honor the origins of the game. The uniform drew inspiration from classic looks and details from the organization's history, creating a fresh look for the marquee event. The classic Sabres stripes were reimagined in a double-stripe motif of royal and gold and the crest was executed in vintage felt, a rich compliment to the dimensional embroidered charging bison first introduced in 2019. Player names and numbers were executed in vintage felt with faux-quilted stitch detailing on the numbers that evoke heritage application techniques.

On Nov. 7, 2022, the Sabres unveiled a black and red alternate jersey modeled after the black and red uniforms the team wore from 1996-97 to 2005-2006 to be worn through at least the conclusion of the 2024-25 NHL season. The white buffalo head logo, affectionately known as the "goat head" by Sabres fans, was re-designed and used as the main crest. An updated version of the "B" with a Sabre piercing through it was featured on the shoulders of the jersey. The silver trim used in the original version of Buffalo's black jersey was removed on the font used for player names and numbers.

Prior to the 2024-25 season, minor changes were made to Buffalo's home, road and alternate jerseys as a result of the NHL's expanded partnership with Fanatics. The overall look of the uniforms was mostly unchanged apart from new shoulder fabrics replacing the debossed pattern fabric used on the shoulders of the Adidas jerseys, a new NHL Shield execution on the front neck of the jersey which includes a special hologram finish, and Fanatics branding embroidered on the back neck of the jerseys.

Dan Dunleavy is entering his third season as the full-time play-by-play announcer for the Buffalo Sabres after splitting his first nine seasons with the club between play-by-play and reporting duties. Prior to joining the Sabres' broadcast team in 2013, Dunleavy spent 19 years at Sportsnet Radio and The Fan 590 Toronto. In addition to filling in as a play-by-play voice for the Sabres in the 2010-11 season, Dunleavy's experience includes nine years of play-by-play for the IIHF World Junior Hockey Championship, the 2008 IIHF World Hockey Championship in Halifax and Quebec City, Men's and Women's Hockey at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics, the OHL's Mississauga Majors, and Canadian Hockey League and American Hockey League games on Rogers Sportsnet.

The Toronto native has also called soccer and lacrosse games, serving as the play-by-play voice for the National Lacrosse League's Toronto Rock on The Fan 590 and the radio and television play-by-play voice for Toronto FC on Sportsnet TV/Radio and TSN 1050 Radio.

Dunleavy currently resides in Eden, New York with his wife, Brenda.

Rob Ray

Color Analyst

Rob Ray, who begins his 21st season on Buffalo Sabres broadcasts, will be entering his 13th season as the full-time color analyst for all Sabres games this season. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray has served as a color analyst and the "between-the-benches" reporter for the past 19 years. In his role as color analyst, Ray remains at ice level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Ray's hockey expertise stems from his 16-year NHL career as a right wing, 14 seasons of which were spent with the Sabres. Known for his toughness on the ice, Ray ranks sixth in NHL history for career penalty minutes (3,207) and holds the Sabres' team record in the same category with 3,189 penalty minutes. Ray played in 900 total NHL games during his career and 889 games with the Sabres, the fourth-most in franchise history.

Despite being one of the game's toughest enforcers, Ray was also awarded the NHL's King Clancy Memorial Award in 1999 for his leadership and humanitarianism. He remains as one of the Sabres' most active alumni, currently serving as president of the Sabres Alumni Association. Ray and his wife, Julianne, live in East Amherst, New York, with their son, Rob Jr., and their daughter, Jordan.

Brian Duff

Studio Host

Entering his 14th season with the Buffalo Sabres, studio host Brian Duff has over 30 years of experience in the broadcasting industry, with the majority of it devoted to covering the NHL.

An original member of NHL Network at the time of its launch in the United States in 2007, Duff served as the lead host for the network's signature events, including the Stanley Cup Final, the NHL All-Star Game and the NHL Draft.

Duff's tenure with the Sabres began on a part-time basis in 2011-12, when he hosted many of the team's road games while also completing his fifth season at NHL Network. Outside of his game night duties on MSG, Duff is also a regular content contributor to Sabres.com and has been a part of multiple New York Emmy Award wins as a member of the production team responsible for series such as Beyond Blue & Gold.

A native of Whitby, Ontario, Duff served as a broadcast host on radio and/or television for the Edmonton Oilers, Ottawa Senators and Toronto Maple Leafs between 1994 and 2007. He is also an avid fan of lacrosse and has done play-by-play and commentary for the National Lacrosse League, including the league's championship games in 2010, 2011, 2016 and 2017.

In addition to his role on the Sabres' broadcast, Duff is a co-host of Sabres Live with Martin Biron.

Martin Biron

Studio Analyst

Martin Biron is entering his eighth season as the studio analyst for the Buffalo Sabres after being named to the position in August 2017. His primary role is to serve as an analyst alongside Brian Duff during the pregame, intermission and postgame portions of the broadcast. Biron will also provide in-game analysis at select times both at ice level and in the broadcast booth.

Biron was the Sabres' first-round pick in the 1995 NHL Draft and ranks fourth in franchise history among goaltenders with 300 games played in his nine seasons with the club. In 2007, he was traded to the Philadelphia Flyers and led the team to the 2008 Eastern Conference Final. Following his time in Philadelphia, Biron went on to spend time with the Islanders and Rangers before retiring from the NHL in October 2013.

In addition to his role on the Sabres' broadcast, Biron is a co-host to Sabres Live with Brian Duff.
